 - civil and criminal proceedings, outcomes and sentences.
 - religious or other beliefs of a similar nature

Why we collect and use this information

We use school workforce data to:

- enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- enable individuals to be paid
- to contact you directly when you are not on the premises
- to contact others known to you, where you have provided their information, in cases where it would be reasonable for us to contact that individual Information Governance Advice and Data Protection Officer Services 10

The lawful basis on which we process this information

We collect and use information under Article 6 and Article 9 of the GDPR, this enables the school to process information such as Departmental Censuses under the Education Act 1996 and other such data processes that relate education provision or payment of the individual. Please see the details below relating to Article 6 and Article 9 of GDPR:

- Article 6(1) (b) Contract: processing is necessary for a contract with an individual.
- Article 6(1) (c) Legal Obligation: Processing is necessary to comply with the law.
- Article 6(1) (e) Public Task: processing is necessary to perform a task in the public interest or for official functions and the task or function has a clear basis in law.
- Article 9(2) (b) processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and exercising specific rights of the controller or of the data subject in the field of employment and social security and social protection law in so far as it is authorised by Union or Member State law or a collective agreement pursuant to Member State law providing for appropriate safeguards for the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject.
- We do not require consent for the majority of the data we collect as the school is a public authority carrying out its duties under law. Where we do require your consent for the processing or collection of your data, we will do so under Article 6 (1) (a): Consent: the individual has given clear consent to process their personal data for a specific purpose.

Collecting this information

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain school workforce information to us or if you have a choice in this.
